

As a business owner in the telecommunications industry I can 100% guarantee you that Local Number Portability is absolutely necessary if you want to have ANY competition among wireless providers.

Without local number portability 800 rates would be three times higher than they are today.

Please protect the consumer and mandate local number portability for all telecommunication carriers, including wireless. There are no REAL technical barriers.